SEIKAIHA

THEATER & RESTAURANT

Overlooking the ocean, Seikaiha features the Naminoritei theater, presenting Japanese culture through Japanese music and performance, Aonoya, a social distancing restaurant serving Japanese cuisine made with local Awaji ingredients, Uminoya, a classic Western style restaurant, and Koshunoya, Japan's first aged sake bar serving carefully selected sake aged for a period 10 years or more.

Seikaiha joined the lineup of facilities along the west coast in 2020 and presents a mix Japanese food, Western food, Italian food, Chinese food, steak and gourmet food from all over the world.

Craft Circus

Seaside Restaurant and Market

Dine and shop in this playful resort atmosphere while enjoying the view of Awaji Island's sea and a sunset selected as one of the 100 best in Japan.

Craft Circus features three areas for guests to "eat", "shop" and "have fun".

Awaji Kaiou Ichiba offers casual dining with freshly caught fish and seafood, such as sashimi and nigirizushi, prepared on the spot from two 4-meter long fish tanks, in which fish from the Seto Inland Sea are displayed.

Relax on the ocean view terrace with a crowd-favourite "Island Pizza", 40cm in diameter.

The market sells vegetables harvested on the day, popular souvenirs from Awaji Island, and other products from affiliated companies.

Aman no Shokutaku

teppanyaki and sukiyaki restaurant

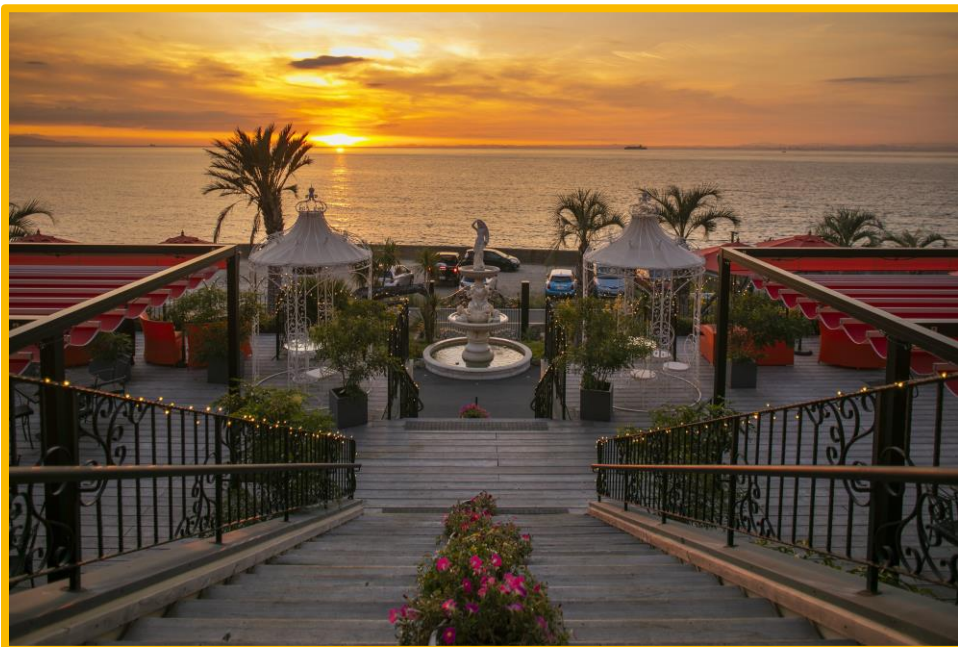

Aman no Shokutaku is an Awaji seafood restaurant where you can enjoy "sea cuisine" made from fresh Awaji Island produce, as well as teppanyaki and sukiyaki prepared using high-grade Awaji beef and other local ingredients.

1F Utage

The 1F Utage serves "Sea Cuisine" prepared using fresh vegetables and seafood from Awaji Island, cooked to perfection in their natural form.

2F Sajiki

The 2F Sajiki dining features teppanyaki and sukiyaki hot pots, in which meticulously selected high-grade ingredients are prepared in front of customers.

Ocean Terrace

A grill restaurant with spectacular ocean views

A restaurant where you can fire up your own Awaji beef steak from cattle raised on the island with a custom-made lava stone grill.

Enjoy the highest quality meat in a luxurious setting overlooking the beautiful sea and sunset of Awaji Island.

Awaji beef is exceptional among Japanese "wagyu", produced from cattle raised in the island's rich natural environment.

With only 150 to 200 cows selected each year, it is assured to be of the highest quality.

Miele

Honey Cafe

Miele serves desserts and drinks made with honey, along with a selection of dishes using local ingredients.

<miele the garden>

Located on the 2F of Ocean Terrace, a 30-second walk from miele, you can enjoy our sister restaurant's popular cafe menu.

Nojima Scuola

Renovation of a closed-down school

Nojima Scuola is a symbolic base for the revitalisation of the region, popular with visitors and locals alike. Its authentic Italian restaurant using ingredients from Awaji Island is a fan-favourite.

Produced by Masayuki Okuda, Head Chef of Al Ché-cciano in Tsuruoka City, Yamagata Prefecture, and selected as one of the 1000 Best Chefs in the world, Scuola Ristorante is an authentic Italian restaurant where you can fully enjoy the best ingredients from Awaji Island.

accommodation

GRAND CHARIOT

LUXURY VILLA RESORT

Grand Chariot 135° is a luxury villa resort located on the starry hill of "Nijigen no Mori". Overlooking the world's longest suspension bridge, the Akashi Kaikyo Bridge, Grand Chariot is the best location on Awaji Island to experience the shining cityscape of Kobe and the starry night sky of Awaji Island.

There are four types of cottage-style suites including the sky, wind, forest, and stars cocoons, which all feature a magnificent skylight in the ceiling to view the starry sky. For a soothing stay, the cocoons each have a "hinoki bath" with the refreshing scent of cypress.

Grand Chariot offers a special course dinner using local Awaji ingredients produced under the supervision of famous Japanese Chef Hal Yamashita. The dinner specialities include the "Tomato Sukiyaki" which uses Awaji beef, fresh local seafood, onions and other vegetables from Awaji Island, as well as the "Uni Nabe", a delicious hotpot made with sea urchin from Awaji Island.

Auberge La Forêt

Three residency-style restaurants and stay

Located on the northern tip of Awaji Island on top of a mountain with magnificent natural views, three up-and-coming chefs offer authentic French cuisine that highlights the charm of Awaji Island's seasonal ingredients with a different concept for each building.

While enjoying the beautiful scenery of Awaji Island and the chirping of birds, you can spend an elegant time where you can become one with nature. An antique carriage welcomes you at the entrance. Enjoy the seasonal flowers in the garden, reminiscent of a French suburban mansion.

La Rose

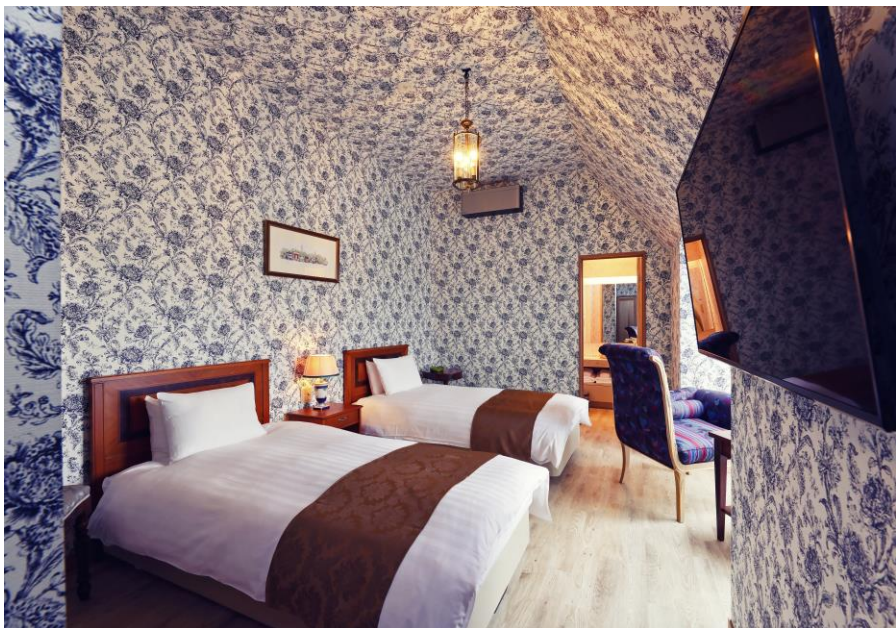

Japanese and French inspired creative French cuisine using ingredients from Awaji Island.

Grand Baobab

French cuisine that lets you enjoy the seasons of Awaji Island with its smokiness and aroma.

Prince Etoile

New-traditional cuisine; traditional French cuisine with a modern twist.
